Message from our Pastor

September came and went pretty quickly for me. Having a week off to travel to the great north woods of Minnesota and Ontario, Canada certainly was a factor in making the month go by much more quickly. It was a relaxing and enjoyable trip as the fish catching proved to be pretty productive this year. Three primary species of fish, small mouth bass, northern pike and walleye. We had success catching all species and it made for some good eating as we had fish meals twice during the week. I also managed to bring fish home, so I am looking forward to having a number of fresh fish dinners for both Kim and I to enjoy over the next few months.

It was unfortunate that we were not able to have the Hualapai Picnic this past month. It is already on the calendar for 2024 and we will do all we can to ensure there are no schedule conflicts with that date. It was refreshing to have a wedding here in the main sanctuary. Laurie Schmaltz and Dern Derfler exchanged vows with family and friends from far and near in attendance. Actually, I have had several weddings here in Lake Havasu, but many of those weddings have been site venue weddings which makes a lot of sense for Lake Havasu as there are several wedding venues to choose from here and in the surrounding area.

I am looking forward to gathering with many of you on Saturday, October 14 at 10 a.m. as we take some time to do some dreaming and brainstorming about the long-range ministry of Mount Olive. The church community has made a significant difference in the lives of people here in Lake Havasu City over the past 60 years. The ministry opportunities, successes and challenges have been multi-faceted over the years with a variety of significant impacts. We have done and we continue to do a lot of things well in many settings and venues.

Message from our Pastor cont'd pg. 1

We have always had a consistent presence with the local food bank with several people from Mt. Olive involved. The prayer shawl ministry and quilting ministry collectively touch more people than we know. The wood shop ministry has been a blessing to those who participate and also to those who are recipients of their creative labor. We are blessed to have a strong and faithful music ministry both in traditional and praise worship settings. The Mt. Olive community has always taken great pride and ownership in the brick and mortar aspect of the campus. We have made tremendous strides in the past 10 years with the addition and renovation of the main worship center. We reached a milestone this past spring with the loan payoff which removes a significant financial burden off of our operating and debt load.

The council has already done some visioning and brainstorming earlier in the year. Now it is time for the collective membership to come together and go through some of the same dreaming processes as we look toward the future work and ministry opportunities and challenges in the coming years.

We have seen some good trends in financial giving over the past 8 months. Keep the financial stewardship at the forefront of your faith expression. As we move into the fall and winter months with the influx of higher attendance and the presence of winter visitors, we have the strong potential to end the fiscal year on a high note this year. Thank you for your faithful stewardship in your financial giving and in the many ways you serve the ministry here at Mt. Olive.

The vineyard still has tending and nurturing to be done. Each of us has our unique gifts, talents and abilities. Take some time to read through and reflect on the apostle Paul's teaching and admonitions to us in the 12th chapter of I Corinthians. Each and everyone one of us has an important and vital role in the work and ministry here at Mt. Olive.

Grace and Peace as we continue on this sojourn together in our walk with Christ our Lord and Savior.

Pastor Craig

The Future of Mount Olive??

As most of you know, we at Mount Olive, have been diligent and paid-off our mortgage this past year. We are debt free and feel that this is an opportune time to explore how we are going to best use our facility to do Christ's work in our community. Your church council has been discussing our future and how do we create this vision for our future? For this to be "our" vision, you, the congregation needs to participate in the process. It has been several years since we went through this exercise so it is time to look ahead, do some brainstorming, and create a 21st century vision for our church. You are invited to be a part of the vision and we encourage you to join us on Saturday, October 14th at 10:00 am in the Café. Just bring your ideas and suggestions as we look to the future. We will be finished before noon.

In His service, Members of the Church Council

A Note from the Office

As we are entering our winter season, we wanted to take this opportunity to request that if you have special requests for any of the office staff and have email access, please email your requests so that we can ensure that nothing gets missed in the newsletter, bulletins, etc.

Also, just a reminder that I still offer notary services to the congregation as I know how difficult it can be to find a notary without having to schedule appointments.

For prayer requests for the bulletin for any announcements to be placed in the weekly bulletin, please email Wanda at office@mtolc.com or call 928-855-2299.

For events or reserving a special room for a meeting, etc. please email Jenifer at

event@mtolc.com

If you have an event or special meeting reserved and need tables, chairs, etc. please contact Jesse at keeper@mtolc.com

Pastor Craig can be reached at 928-855-2299 or via email at revcmcorbin@gmail.com

This past month there were texts going out to people in the congregation stating that they were Pastor Craig. If you receive a text and are not sure, please always call the office at 928-855-2299 and we can verify if it is legitimate. We have reported the number that these texts were coming from so hopefully they do not continue. If you have the option, you can always report the number as spam which should stop them from coming to you or you can block the number. I will always assist with this process if needed.

Looking forward to a beautiful fall and winter.

God Bless you all,

Wanda Shockley

Expenses ran consistent with prior months. YTD our net income is $23,048.00 versus an approximate $21,000.00 loss YTD July of 2022. Shelly Hales moved to accept the reports as presented. ## Council Meeting Minutes

August 15, 2023

Window for Front Office: Tabled.

By-Laws Change: The letter announcing the Sept. 17th special meeting was placed in the Olive Branch and in the Church bulletin.

Nominating Committee: Proposed list of committee members are as follows: Lil Aston, Shelly Hales, Kris Kidder, Leighton Kidder and Helen Williams. Karol Falsetti moved to accept the proposal. Colleen Klatt seconded. Motion carried. The committee member proposal will be brought for a vote at the special meeting to be held Sept. 17th.

New Business:

Café & Music Room Floor Care: Pastor Craig reported that three bids to strip and wax the floors had been received. All three were over the budgeted amount of $1,000.00. The bids will be submitted to the property committee for their consideration.

Scholarship Policy: A member of our congregation has asked for help with tuition and books to pursue a two-year associate degree which would ultimately lead to a Bachelor of Science degree in ministry. We have two funds available however; the requirements to obtain assistance from these funds fall outside this type of request. After discussion the council proposed to form a committee to look into potentially broadening the criteria for access to these funds. Shelly Hales will ask Jim Day to chair the committee and bring a policy proposal to Council.

Call to the Congregation:

Some members are wondering why the blinds are always closed in the sanctuary. Questions about the condition of the parking lot striping were raised along with asking if there were plans to complete the re-surfacing. It was suggested that we advertise our Bible studies and other Church events in the Daily Happenings section of the News Herald to reach out to the general public.

Walk on Items: Jim Day will lead the next general meeting in September.

Motion to Adjourn: Colleen Klatt moved to adjourn. Karol Falsetti seconded. Motion carried. President Shelly Hales adjourned the meeting at 8:10 p.m. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.
