Message from our Pastor

We have just come away from the Thanksgiving holiday weekend. It was an especially sweet, enjoyable and blessed weekend for Kim and I. We had all three of our adult children home and two spouses. It was the first time we have all been together since August of 2020, when we gathered for Grace and Owen's wedding.

We are grateful to have had this opportunity to spend some quality time with all of them. Nothing earth shattering happened. Just good family time with rest, hiking, food, a movie, games and laughter. And the entire family was together for worship on Saturday evening. Something that has not happened for quite some time. It was peaceful and calm.

Eileen Caddy, spiritual teacher and new age author, wrote, "Gratitude helps you to grow and expand; gratitude brings joy and laughter into your life and into the lives of all those around you." I felt a connection with this quote this past weekend during our time together with family.

We also gathered on Thanksgiving Eve and had a small worship gathering. I had spent some time earlier in the week immersing myself with quotes about "Gratitude". I shared several of the quotes that I felt were more meaningful and thought provoking with those who gathered for the worship that night. I will share some of those quotes with you now and my hope is you, will find something or hear something in one of them that speaks to your heart and state of mind. Here are a few quotes to reflect and ponder.

"Listen to your life. See it for the fathomless mystery that it is. In the boredom and pain of it, no less than in the excitement and gladness...because in the last analysis all moments are key moments and life itself is grace." Frederick Buechner

"Living in a state of gratitude is the gateway to grace." Arianna Huffington

"There is a God right here in the thick of our day-by-day lives who may not be writing messages about himself in the stars, but who is in one way or another, trying to get messages through our blindness, as we move around down here knee-deep in the fragrant muck and misery and marvel of the world." Frederick Buechner

Message from our Pastor cont'd pg. 1

“Gratitude gets us through the hard stuff...Gratitude always leaves us looking at God and away from dread.” Max Lucado

“Thus, when you wake up in the morning, called by God to be a self again, if you want to know who you are, watch your feet. Because where your feet take you, that is who you are.” Frederick Buechner

“Gratitude is a posture of your heart. I believe that it has been a gatekeeper in my life and has brought on so many blessings.” Amanda Kloots

“The grace of God means something like: Here is your life. You might never have been, but you are, because the party wouldn’t have been complete without you. Here is the world. Beautiful and terrible things will happen. Don’t be afraid. I am with you.” Frederick Buechner

“It is enough to be grateful for the next breath.” Brother David Steindl-Rast

“We are children, perhaps, at the very moment when we know that it is as children that God loves us-not because we have deserved his love and not in spite of our underserving; not because we try and not because we recognize the futility of our trying; but simply because he has chosen to love us. We are children because he is our father; and all of our efforts, fruitful and fruitless, to do good, to speak truth, to understand, are the efforts of children who, for all their precocity, are children still in that, before we loved him, he loved us, as children, through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Frederick Buechner

As you can see, half of the quotes are from Frederick Buechner. I found him to be most insightful and most thought provoking. As we enter in the season of Advent, I leave you with one final quote that seems most appropriate for us to ponder in the coming days just before Christmas.

Once again, a quote from Frederick Buechner, “Once we have seen Him in a stable, we can never be sure where He will appear or to what lengths He will go or to what ludicrous depths of self-humiliation He will descend in His wild pursuit of mankind.”

Grace and Peace as you journey through Advent and to the stable where we will encounter and welcome the incarnate Son of God, Jesus, the Savior of the world.

Rev Craig Larson, Associate Pastor at Mount Olive, 1993-2001, will be installed as Associate Pastor at Desert Hills Lutheran Church, Green Valley AZ, on December 4.

The northwest winds are blowing and the air has a chill to it. It's a perfect time to cuddle up under a warm blanket or wrap yourself in a shawl! Each shawl is prayed over as it is being made and we pray that the recipient will feel the warmth of God's loving embrace. The shawls are also blessed at the altar and the weekend after Thanksgiving will be the next prayer shawl blessing at all services.

Our group will meet on Tuesday, December 13th at 10:00 in the Fireside Room. It is a chance for fellowship and sharing stories, prayers and patterns. All are welcome to join us and if you are interested in learning to knit or crochet you may learn a new skill. We are also going out to lunch afterwards this month. Please join us!!

Many people are hurting this time of year due to illness, loneliness, grief, and other life happenings. If you know of someone who could use a shawl please contact one of these ladies and they will make sure that a shawl is delivered.

A Message from Bishop Deborah Hutterer

Dear Partner in Ministry,

2022 was a year where, after an almost 2-year pandemic hibernation, face-to-face life and activity started to resume. In your name, and through our partnership as congregation and synod, together we were able to:

- Accompany three congregations as they discerned potential Anchor church possibilities.
- Explore 2 new ministry possibilities: the West Valley Young Adult Ministry, and a partnership with the UCC for Nogales Latino Ministry.
- Provide $202,874 in project and ACTS grants to 32 ministries and congregations for outreach and ministry in their communities.
- Welcome 5 new candidates into candidacy and continue to accompany 27 candidates for Word and Sacrament and Word and Service.
- Continue support to Navajo Evangelical Lutheran Mission and House of Prayer for basic human needs and spiritual formation of the Wisdom Keepers.

Your continuing commitment allows us to communicate Jesus, connect people, and create possibilities.

You make things happen as you support ministries across the synod and churchwide that you could not accomplish on your own. Thank you for your faithfulness.

Your generosity makes all these things possible. Thank you for gifts and partnership as we are church together for the sake of the world.

With you in Christ,

The Rev. Deborah K. Hutterer

MOUNT OLIVE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Council Meeting Minutes

October 18, 2022

Absent: none

I. Call to order: Jim called meeting to order at 7PM. Pastor shared prayer. Butch read an inspiring devotion that explained the meaning of each line in the Holy Spirit Prayer.

II. Standing Agenda Items:

A. Agenda: Jim asked to add White Burro Sale and Balloon Festival as a New Business item. Janet made motion to approve agenda with those additions. Mary seconded. Agenda approved.

B. Minutes: Kris stated the order of some info from last month's meeting should be switched around due to discussion always coming after a motion is made (according to Robert's Rules of Order). Motion was made by Kris to accept the minutes with those changes and Colleen seconded. Shelly will make necessary changes. Minutes approved.

C. Correspondence: none to report

D. Financial: Steve summarized the September General Fund balance (-$2,308.13) and the YTD balance (YTD -$20,662.27). He recommended closing the Mission Fund and World Hunger Fund, which have been itemized on the Restricted Fund report, because there has been no income or expenses for at least 3 years. The envelope boxes that were printed for individual members had specific envelopes titled for those funds. We are no longer using those envelopes due to the cost. Mary made a motion to close Mission and World Hunger Funds and remove them from the Restricted Fund Report. Mike seconded. Motion carried. Colleen made a motion to approve the financial report and Karol seconded. Financial report was approved.

Steve passed out Draft #2 of the budget for the next fiscal year directing us to give consideration to how we can lower the benevolences. There needs to be a decrease in money spent in order to have a balanced budget and he feels this is the area to do that. He explained the timeline for the council to approve a budget so that it can be presented for a vote at the December 4th congregational meeting.

Coffee with Council feedback: Butch decided to "go to the people" instead of waiting at a table for people to come to him. He went around to various tables in the café. One idea shared was not doing live streaming hoping to boost attendance in person.

Council Meeting Minutes

October 18, 2022

F. Consent Agenda: Reports submitted included : Worship Board, Fellowship Committee, Event Coordinator, Outreach, PGE, Property and Pastor's report.

Kris requested pulling the NT report and the EC report. She asked for more details on the copyright issue causing us to be flagged in our Facebook Livestream. Jenifer Clark knows all the facts about this. Putting it simply, some songs we use in our services can't be livestreamed in all countries. There was a correction to be made on the Network Table Report. The Scoops Fundraiser donations totaled $535.

III. Unfinished Business:

Corrections on the wording of the Fundraiser Policy Permission Form need to be made therefore, this will be tabled for next month.

Van rides: Mike knows of someone from The Views complex who would like a ride to church. Paul should put up a slide or an announcement can be made asking for people to contact the office if they are willing to stop by The Views to pick people up or if anyone who lives there needs a ride.

IV. New Business:

Burro Sale: A chairperson for the next sale needs to be identified. Shelly agreed to talk to Leslie.

Balloon Festival: Jim asked for council's permission to use the MOLC van to help shuttle people to the festival in January. Jim made motion to use the van, with our volunteer drivers, to shuttle people to and from the parking areas. Mike seconded. No discussion. Motion passed.

V. Call to congregation:

Comments: Wanda noted that people who need a meal delivered the day of the Thanksgiving meal should let the office know. She asked for council to spread the word. Last year there wasn't any problem finding volunteers to deliver them. The Dewey family helped!

VI. Closing:

Adjourn: Colleen made motion to adjourn and Karol seconded. Meeting adjourned at 8:05 PM with Lord's Prayer.

Next Meeting date: November 15, 2022 @ 7PM

Prayerfully submitted by Shelly Hales council secretary
